WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON RADIO
TECHNICAL COMMISSION FOR MARITIME SERVICES PETITION FOR RULEMAKING TO UPDATE PART 80 OF THE COMMISSION'S RULES

RM-11765

Comments Due: May 31, 2016

Reply Comments Due: June 21, 2016

On February 16, 2016, the Radio Technical Commission for Maritime Services (RTCM) filed a Petition for Rulemaking requesting that the Commission open a rulemaking proceeding to comprehensively update, streamline, and reorganize Part 80 of its rules in order to enhance maritime safety, promote the efficient use of the maritime spectrum, and remove unnecessary regulatory burdens on the users and manufacturers of maritime radio equipment.¹ RTCM notes that the last major rewrite of Part 80 was in 2000, and many of the international standards and recommendations incorporated in the rules have since been revised.

Most of the proposed rule changes are set forth as redline edits to the current Part 80 in an attachment to the petition, with brief explanations for the proposed changes. RTCM's proposals address a variety of issues, including clarifying the requirements and procedures regarding maritime mobile service identities, updating the equipment and carriage requirements for digital selective calling equipment, revising the rules to authorize new types of Automatic Identification System equipment and Emergency Position Indicating Radiobeacons, and adding regulations for High Speed Craft.

By this Public Notice, we seek comment on the Petition for Rulemaking. In addition to addressing RTCM's specific proposals, commenters are asked to suggest any additional rule changes that they believe are appropriate, particularly with respect to removing obsolete provisions. We ask commenters to provide information on the costs of complying with any proposed new requirements, and whether the safety benefits to be derived therefrom outweigh the compliance costs. We also seek comment on the appropriate timetable for phasing out equipment that does not comply with any proposed new requirements.
